

You Can't Stop The Sun From Going Down

Kristian Bush

Rain gonna fall, a seed's gonna grow
Weeds gonna shoot up row by row
Clouds gonna gather, storms gonna blow
Shadows gonna follow you wherever you go
Leaves on that tree, they're gonna end up on the ground
Boy, you can't stop the sun from goin' down

You love who you love, it's the rules of the heart
Sets fire in your blood with just one spark
You catch a good wind and watch it burn to the ground
Boy, you can't stop the sun from goin' down

Or comin' up in the dawn
When the night's been too long
Shinnin' bright, bringin' hope where hope is gone
When it's gone

So don't wear a watch and don't watch your steps
And love like a freight train with no regrets
And live like you and Picasso painted the town
You gotta come out swingin' when you hear that bell sound
I'm telling you the truth if you don't know by now
Boy, you can't stop the sun from goin' down

And you can't stop a thief from stealin' the crown
And you can't stop Romeo from hangin' around
You can try, you can try, but you can't slow it down
Boy, you can't stop the sun from goin' down

Boy, you can't stop the sun from goin' down
Boy, you can't stop the sun from goin' down
