

You Will Reign

Kristian Stanfill

Oh, great God, there's nothing You can't do
Oh, great God, You speak and mountains move
We believe, we believe

Oh, great God, there's none outside Your reach
Oh, great God, give us faith to see and believe
We believe

With You all things are possible
It's true that You are unstoppable
Your light will never fade
Your promises remain unchanged
You will reign

Oh, great God, there's power in Your name
Oh, great God, we're rising up to say
We believe, we believe

With You all things are possible
It's true that You are unstoppable
Your light will never fade
Your promises remain unchanged
You will reign

There is none so able
To mend broken hearts, heal every sickness
There is none so able
To waken the dead, light up the darkness

There is none so able
There is none so able

With You all things are possible
It's true that You are unstoppable
Your light will never fade
Your promises remain unchanged
You will reign

With You all things are possible
It's true that You are unstoppable
Your light will never fade
Your promises remain unchanged
You will reign, oh Lord

You will reign, Lord
You will reign

Oh, great God, there's nothing You can't do
Oh, great God, You speak and mountains move
We believe, we believe
