

Vitamins V

Kristin Hersh

4 p.m. death by mosquito
And vitamins V
Home and the contrasting squalor
A mouth full of vodka

This lukewarm catastrophe
Is a recipe for rebirth
Or so I overheard

Flat on the Afghani carpet
The tub's overflowed
I am still staring through the fish tank
And a fist full of Valium

This lukewarm catastrophe
Is a recipe for rebirth
Or so I overheard

You're gonna wanna keep in touch with your silence
Remember shy person hell
I won't waste your time with lies
And there is not much truth to tell

I won't go under in this state
I'm as ugly as I look
So dinner's a vivid hangover
And a long ass drive

This lukewarm catastrophe
Is a recipe for rebirth
Or so I overheard

You're gonna wanna keep in touch with your silence
Remember shy person hell
I won't waste your mind with lies
And there is not much truth to tell

You're gonna wanna ride back here with me
I've got the coolest view
And on vitamins V, I can't seem to lie to you
I can't seem to lie to you
