

Boyfriend

Kristinia DeBarge

It's three o'clock at night
Do you know where your boyfriend is?
When's the last time he dropped by?
Or the last time he checked in?
Did he tell you where he was going?
Did he say who he was gonna see?
My guess is you don't really know it
You don't know to believe

If he never tells you nothing
I'm afraid there's probably something
That you're not gon' want me wanting to know

I think I saw your boyfriend
Yeah, I think I saw your boyfriend
Sure looked like your boyfriend
Yeah, I think it was your boyfriend all up in the club with,
With a cig and a chick in the corner
Spitting game and taking down numbers
Couldn't tell, he was kinda undercover
Then again I'm sure I saw your boyfriend

5 o'clock a.m, guess who ain't been to sleep
You still ain't heard from him
Wondering, where the hell is he?
Could've called, could've text on his Berry
Not a word, not a tone, not a bleep
Feeling dumb, feeling lost, kinda scary
Hope it's not what you think

If he never tells you nothing
I'm afraid there's probably something
That you're not gon' want me wanting to know

I think I saw your, no!
I'm sure I saw your boyfriend
Yeah I think I saw your boyfriend
Sure looked like your boyfriend
Yeah, I think it was your boyfriend all up in the club with,
With a cig and a chick in the corner
Spitting game and taking down numbers
Couldn't tell, he was kinda undercover
Then again I'm sure I saw your boyfriend

I think I saw your boyfriend
Yeah, I think I saw your boyfriend
Sure looked like your boyfriend
