

Bulletproof

Kristinia DeBarge

I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
But somehow I'm pulling through
In spite of all the pain I held on to
You try to shoot me down
Your shells fall on the ground
I'm sending them back to you
I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof

You were once the world to me
I was living with no doubt in my mind,
Taking my time
I was blind, I couldn't see
Small fish in a big pond

Somehow you made me fall
And no matter who was calling
To try to get me off your land
But a young girl was just trying to follow her heart
And now it's just too hard

I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
But somehow I'm pulling through
In spite of all the pain I held on to
You try to shoot me down
Your shells fall on the ground
I'm sending them back to you
I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof

I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof

You start to lie to numb the pain
Kinda hope that tonight it would rain
I'm going insane
Everybody laughs at me,
They don't know what I've been through

I remember your name popping in my head
How you always left me bruised
But I guess it was my fault anyway
'Cause I continue to let you too
And now I wish that

I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
But somehow I'm pulling through
In spite of all the pain I held on to
You try to shoot me down
Your shells fall on the ground

I'm sending them back to you
I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof

And all the times I held onto
I could have sworn that we'd be fine
But you had to go and mess it up
You really blew my mind
It didn't have to be so hard
But it seems you made it clear
So go ahead and take your shots
I'm bulletproof, I'm standing right here, oh!

I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
But somehow I'm pulling through
In spite of all the pain I held on to
You try to shoot me down
Your shells fall on the ground
I'm sending them back to you
I wish my heart was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof

I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof
I could withstand these shots from you
If I was bulletproof
