

Let It

Kristinia DeBarge

Always tryna front like it's nothing
All in your feeling, is you bluffin'?
Guess you wasn't payin' attention
Why you think you the exception?
Yeah
I don't fall in love just to fall in love, I ain't ready
Yeah
And I'm tired of...
You tryna act like a "one size, fits all"
Boy, what the hell you be drinking?
Stacie and Keisha my life, that she'd better
I'm a different breed than what you be thinking
Wait, what? Hollup! Wait
Tryna make you see that to get me
You gotta play it low, like I said before

Aw let it, let it
Yeah baby, just let it
I don't fall in love just to fall in love
I ain't ready, let it
Aw baby, just let it
Just let it flow

Stop telling me 'bout what you got
Trust me, I heard you the first time
Don't get me wrong, I love paper
Yeah
Here we go again, tired of telling you the same old thing
Boy you ain't my bae
Tell me how to make you understand
Throw a 65 in the 50 mile
Highway love it, my style
The only temple that I moved to is mine
Oh na na na
I suppose I need to wait til' spring for it to grow
Like I said before

Aw let it, let it
Yeah baby, just let it
I don't fall in love just to fall in love
I ain't ready, let it
Aw baby, just let it
Just let it flow
