

From Gehenna to here

Kryptor

All great plains of this earth now are drowning in fire gather under ruined land from these legions in iron.
This is fear - this means eternal war sick atmosphere much darker than gore.
Watch the victims thrive in pools of blood raining from heaven rape and torture - an obscure scene called damnation.
To thee is forsaken ignite this stake light this flame burning depths of freezing inferno.

From Gehenna and back a release of sin
this is hells lair deep from within.
