

Kill or Die

Kryptor

Cold hearted professionals are ruling the scene
they're out for your life while staying unseen
hidden in shadows they are watching your step programmed to kill you they are spinning their web.
So take your chances man, there's no time to lose
it is on your own now, it's on you what you choose.
Let their blood pure like rain, show them you're strong
the winner is always right, the loser is wrong.
Kill or die!

A new age of warfare is obviously near
you feel it coming, but nobody cares
innocent victims will be killed in the night
bloodhungry creatures are ruling this fight.
They'll show you no mercy, so fight for your life
it's on your own now, it's dead or alive.
Let their blood...
Kill or die!

Empires of terror, persecution and pain
tyrants of nightfall are engineering this game
merciless onslaught in front of your eyes
don't feed their phrases upon, they're just telling you lies, man.
The law of the stronger is always the truth
it's on your own now if the stronger shall be you.
Let their blood...
Kill or die!
