

Struggle For Humanity

Kryptor

Hostile instincts are instilled in each of us uncontrolled desires are burning us within degenerated ideas use to drive us mad all bloody deeds are effects of human existence.
Contol your desires don't destroy yourself
separate the truth from the lie find the arise!

The present world we live in day by day finds itself in a state of madness, fear, phobia and lies destroy it now, tear down the curtains of untruth light the darkness and never surrender.
Control your desires do not destroy yourself
separate the truth from the lie
find the arise!
Struggle for humanity!
