

...Or Someone Else Will

Krystal Harris

You say that you love him you belong to him heart and soul then why is he so lonely?
Telling me he's had it with it all Too much for him to handle love Yelling & fighting over just the little things
I know it's not your fault
But you better sacrifice, before I have to close

[Chorus 2x]

Someone else will someone else will love him like you don't She'll do whatcha couldn't bring yourself to do so I'm telling you to sacrifice
or someone else will

He told me that you were the first one to take him to church
You helped turn him around
But that just aint good enough
If you're the one who truly loves Sometimes I find myself, thinking you're not good enough You better get it right, and forget your selfish ways
or someone else will.

[Chorus 2x]

Oooh, someone else will.
Sometimes I find myself thinking you're not good enough You better get it right
And forget your selfish ways
I think you're not good enough
So someone else will

[Chorus 2x]
