

Beautiful Weakness

Krystal Keith

The line of consequence isn't always straight
I cross it easily, I don't hesitate
Cause when it comes to you, I work without a net
I'm just falling into the regret

Lovely contradiction
Is what I get when I give in
A masterful distraction
You've become my favorite sin
And I don't want the strength it takes
To turn and walk away
You leave me speechless
You are my weakness
My beautiful weakness

The love worth fighting for is doomed and compromised
Some loves aren't meant to be even when they're right
Every single touch is like lucky loaded gun
Guiltless danger, I'm not running from

Lovely contradiction
Is what I get when I give in
A masterful distraction
You've become my favorite sin
And I don't want the strength it takes
To turn and walk away
You leave me speechless
You are my weakness
My beautiful weakness

Life isn't about the breaths you take
But the moments that take your breath away

Lovely contradiction
Is what I get when I give in
A masterful distraction
You've become my favorite sin
And I don't want the strength it takes
To turn and walk away
You leave me speechless
You are my weakness
My beautiful weakness
