

Resting Beach Face

Krystal Keith

I wish I could hang a do not disturb sign
On this blue umbrella
I dig your confidence and I mean no offense
You seem like a real nice fella

I'm not feeling like being conversational
I'm just being here feeling free and tropical

Blame my coma on Corona, I just wanna relax
Blame the sun I'm soaking off for me turning my back
[?] my RayBan shades
[?] with my feet in the sand
Staring out at the waves
It's my resting beach face

I'm here with my girls tryna turn off the world
And tune into the ocean
It's a no cell phone, no cute guy zone
So you can just keep on going

I'm not feeling like being romantic, oh
I'm just being here feeling invisible
Suntan-able, and it's wonderful

Blame my coma on Corona, I just wanna relax
Blame the sun I'm soaking off for me turning my back
[?] my RayBan shades
[?] with my feet in the sand
Staring out at the waves
It's my resting beach face

Yeah that joke was funny
Trust me, inside I'm laughing
Could you stop 'cause you're blocking my sun
And this ain't gonna happen, no it's not

Blame my coma on Corona, I just wanna relax
Blame the sun I'm soaking off for me turning my back
[?] my RayBan shades
[?] with my feet in the sand
Staring out at the waves
My resting beach face
My resting beach face
My resting beach face
