

Casual

Kshmr

Searching, following my instincts
Everything with you feels new
Eyes wide open but I'm dreaming
Everything is green and blue

Feeling like an animal
Tryna keep it casual
Up against the wall
I'm an animal
Something supernatural
I can't fight the call

Every night, feel it feeding
Can't control the bleeding through
Ain't gonna try to be the air you breathe
But I keep needing you

Feeling like an animal
Tryna keep it casual
Up against the wall
I'm an animal
Something supernatural
I can't fight the call
