Heartbeat

Kshmr

This is a robbery
You steal my heart in my sleep but I won't
Pretend that you're good to me
And I don't know why I'm so addicted

Ooh, I'm sick of all the sadness
I'm sick of all the pain
Ooh, I'd die for your attention
But I'd do it all again

'Cause in a heartbeat
I would fight for you just like an army
Run a thousand miles so you can la la love me or tear me apart
Would you break my heart in a heartbeat?
'Cause in a heartbeat
I would fight for you just like an army
Run a thousand miles so you can la la love me or tear me apart
Would you break my heart in a heartbeat?

(Break my heart in a heartbeat)

How can I let you go?
We're so close to heaven now, you touch me
You're giving me vertigo
And I don't think you know where my heart is

I'm way past the Rubicon
I'm stuck in a marathon and I need
To live in your Babylon
But I don't think you see me in the darkness

Ooh, I'm sick of all the sadness
I'm sick of all the pain
Ooh, I'd die for your attention
But I'd do it all again

'Cause in a heartbeat
I would fight for you just like an army
Run a thousand miles so you can la la love me or tear me apart
Would you break my heart in a heartbeat?
'Cause in a heartbeat
I would fight for you just like an army
Run a thousand miles so you can la la love me or tear me apart
Would you break my heart in a heartbeat?

(Break my heart in a heartbeat)
