

Mystical Beginning

Kshmr

It's so mystical (Oh) what I feel for you (Ah)
What I wanna do, what I feel for you
It's a mystical beginning what I feel for you (Ah)
What I wanna do, what I feel for you

I admit I'm a shark circling
In the dark for blood
Let me get high off you (High off you)
I've been sharpenin' my teeth
Comin' up from underneath
Yeah, tryna play it cool

You fill my life with holy light
You bring me to my knees and pray
Sacrifice, I pay the price
To feel your pleasure and your pain

It's so mystical (Oh) what I feel for you (Ah)
What I wanna do, what I feel for you
It's a mystical beginning what I feel for you (Ah)
What I wanna do, what I feel for you

Mystical beginning
Should run while we're still winning
I don't feel like beginning
With someone new, pretending
It's you

I don't need you, I love you
I hate that I want you
Want to feel you against me
I hate that I'm empty
How could I judge you?
I'm not worthy of you
I thought I loved you
But you made me hate myself
So, bitch, fuck you
'Cause I don't need you, I love you
I hate that I want you
Want to feel you against me
I hate that I'm empty
How could I judge you?
I'm not worthy of you
I thought I loved you
But you made me hate myself
So, bitch, fuck you

It was a mystical beginning
