

Jealous

K.T. Oslin

I see you every day but you don't see me
No, you hardly even look my way
No, your eyes are only for her
And her eyes are often gazing another's way

She makes me jealous
She makes you jealous too
You're jealous of these other fellas
I'm just jealous about you
Ain't it a funny? Ain't it a joke?

The only heart that's cheating
Is the only heart that ain't being broke
She makes me so jealous
And honey, I, I oughta run up to you

And tell you myself, you know
She's throwing your love away
Find the nearest sunset
And love your night into a lovely day

Honey, if I could, wouldn't life be fine?
But here I stand afraid to try
I'm rooted to this pot just like a tree
Oh, heartache or misery

She makes me jealous
She makes you jealous too
You're jealous of these other fellas
I'm just jealous about you
Ain't it a funny? Ain't it a joke?

Honey, her cheating heart
Is the only heart that ain't being broke
She makes me so jealous
Now I can't help it she makes me jealous

Oh, oh, oh so jealous
I'm gonna go on jealous
I just can't help it, she makes me jealous
Oh, she makes me so jealous
