

Tear Time

K.T. Oslin

Tear time starts without warning
Sometimes night sometimes morning
All it takes is the smallest thought of you
And then tear time starts crying all night through

Tear, it's that time again
Tear time, crying time again
Starts, all the hurt begins
Without warning

Some days my eyes stay dry
Sometimes I forget but why
Why it brings new tears to cry until morning

All it takes is the smallest thought of you
Then tear time
Starts crying all night through
