

Two Hearts

K.T. Oslin

You're the picture of lonely if I ever saw one
Sitting at that table so all alone
Don't know what happened, I don't know your story
But if you had somebody, I think you'd probably be home

Hope you don't mind if I sit down beside you
I believe that we're two of a kind
It could be better if we were together
'Cause hurting together beats hurting alone

Two hearts are better than one
Two hearts keep the pain on the run
When it's all night and the night's just begun
Don't you know two hearts, two hearts are better than one?

Honey, we don't have to face this all by our lonesome
All tied up by heartache, surrounded by blue
We found each other, don't you know the hardest part is over?
Now it's just a matter of following through

We can hold on as the night swirls around us
Sheltered in each other's arms
Oh and it could be better if we were together
'Cause hurting together beats hurting alone

Two hearts are better than one
Two hearts keep the pain on the run
When it's all night and the night's just begun
Don't you know two hearts, two hearts are better than one?
