

All The Time

Kt Tunstall

I notice it as the coffee burns my tongue
I feel it as the sunlight hits my lungs
And the water gets reflected
In the windowpane
Where the construction guy's been working day after day and

I can't help but be impressed
He knows what to do
He's just building up that building
And moves onto something new
And it reminded me of you
Reminded me of you

And I think about you all the time
I think about you all the time

I'm watching the breeze move a spider's web
How I love getting tangled up in all the things you said
And I'm feeling ever grateful for the mess in my head
And being in the warmth of my own body in my bed
But it reminded me of you
Reminded me of you

Why do I live
Like I'm gonna die full of regret?
Why do I live
As if I need
All the time
That I can get?

I think about you all the time
I think about you all the time

Yeah, yeah
All the time
Oh I think about you all the time
Yes I think about you all the time
