Difficulty

Kt Tunstall

Isn't much more I can do for you
Isn't much more that I can try
Twisting myself into shapes
To stop you crying
What'll I do if I lose you
What'll I do if I lose
Difficulty is coming my way
Coming my way

Making my way into places Only been seen on your darkest days Breaking my heart to take a walk Into your jungle What can I do in this world for you If difficulty is my friend Keeping me company when I know I don't need it

You change every day You change every day (What can I do to make you notice) You change every day You change every day You change every day You change every day How can I tell you the truth When I don't want to

Possible days in my future Possible ways into my past Sewing it up nice and tightly So I don't wonder

What if I did so much more for you And what if I'd said so much more Difficulty would be a stranger A stranger to me

You change every day You change every day (What can I do to make you notice) You change every day You change every day (A little more time to bring you home) You change every day You change every day How can I tell you the truth When I don't want to

Oh, yeah I'm governed by difficulty

You change every day You change every day (What can I do to make you notice) You change every day You change every day (A little more time to bring you home) You change every day You change every day How can I tell you the truth When I don't want to
