

Patience

Kt Tunstall

Dare I say no, when you look at me so Are there no words, I can put there Half of my heart, knows just what it wants from me b ut it's not a democracy in my soul

Strike in the dark for that sulfur glow Show up the tears, in h iding Confide in me darling for secrets are rocket fuel and I k now I'd be a fool to let you go

And now I know Time is no friend of mine, nor his girl Patience
, patience

Confide in me darling for secrets are rocket fuel and I know I' d be a fool to let you go

, patience

Patience, patience.
