

Three

Kt Tunstall

Time can show me
Never wholly
Be the picture that I wanna see
Feel the moments falling
Keep repeating now
No retreating now
It's time to be
All those things I read aloud
Telling my mind
Telling my heart
And soul
We can let go of control

Here I am at the beginning
And here I stand at the end
As electricity dances
Take chances
These days
There's always three responses (however I fall)
My mind, my heart, my soul
Three responses (however I fall)
My mind, my heart, my soul

Three

And if I asked you would you come with me
Into something so completely unknown?
Cast no shadow
Take my hand now and
We'll expand until suddenly
There's no need for fear no more
Telling your mind, telling your heart and soul
We can let go of control

Here I am at the beginning
And here I stand at the end
As electricity dances
Take chances
These days
There's always three responses (however I fall)
My mind, my heart, my soul
Three responses (however I fall)
My mind, my heart, my soul

Three, three, three
Three, three, three

Here I am at the beginning
As electricity dances
Take chances
These days
There's always three responses (however I fall)
My mind, my heart, my soul
Three responses (however I fall)
My mind, my heart, my soul

Three (however I fall)
Three, three, three (however I fall)
Three, three, three (however I fall)
Three, three, three (however I fall)

Three, three, three
