

Human kind has reached a time
Where faith can take a step back
(Follow truth and fact)
Jesus Christ. White washed in the blood
Of plantation crops and native plots
A proven tool to bait the hooks
While the church controlled the history books
(Mother fucker)
You love Christ because it's right?
He arrived on ships with men who forced their thoughts

Sleep beside the fire
That burns brightest the darkness

History and man's beliefs tell two tales of destiny
Knowledge leads to set our kind free

Man made god to make sense of this world
Nature proves we all lose. There is no control

Pagan kings and offerings
Men created Christ to keep control
Loosely pieced from past beliefs
To unify the heathen gods beneath a cross
Integrate or be erased
Conquered lands set the pace for breeding faith
Religion needs the human seed
Our species is unique. Confided to our beliefs

Sleep beside the fire
That burns brightest in darkness
Sleep beside the fire (Knowledge will lead. Move forward)
That burns brightest in darkness (Knowledge will lead. Move forward)
