

Let me be the first to say
You're nothing more than mother fucking pretty face
Just another bitch running the rat race
You had me hanging at the end of my rope
And I wouldn't put it past you just to let me choke
You gave me some thing that I'd never had
Not going to sell out and be something I'm not Just to give people like you something they ain't got
You said you missed me
You said you needed me
Days wasted hours in time
Never gonna get it
I won't ever get back
You stole them from me
Learn to stand on your own two feet
Cause you're stepping on my toes
Lessons learned lessons lived
Learn to stand on your own two feet

Cause you're stepping on my toes
This ones for Kel
You're the one who first told me
It's okay to miss being missed
It's okay
It's okay
It's okay
It's okay
