

Self-Destruct

Kublai Khan

Absolute.

Bear witness to the next great collapse of the human mind.
Logic has been lost. Hunted down at all cost.

This is the new beginning.
Induce the cancellation.

But down around the ground the dogs fight.
Gnashing teeth snap just to be right.
Occupied with choosing a side instead.
Too full of pride to put aside the hatred.

There's no choice.
Eat your kind.
Bow to war.
Self-destruct.

Break it down.
Question why.
Every fucking human is built to
Self-destruct.
