

Lost my control
And the stillness in my mind
Lit a fire in me
And I owe it to my life
To the woman in me
From a woman to a child

When you step to ascend
Don't imagine the fall
I can not fear you
All my life
All of this time
Leave it behind me

Was waiting for the right time
The right signs
Never getting closer though
I'm ready to go
I'm ready to go
Don't hate on where I came from
Count what you made from it
Might have been ashamed of some things I did
Put it down to trouble, not misery
I'm letting it go
I'm letting it go
Don't tell me that it's not a way forward though

When you step to ascend
Don't imagine the fall
I can not fear you
All my life
All of this time
Leave it behind me

Lost my control
And the stillness in my mind
Lit a fire in me
And I owe it to my life
To the woman in me
From a woman to a child

When you step to ascend
Don't imagine the fall
I can not fear you
All my life
All of this time
Leave it behind me
