

Can't Help It

KUČKA

You don't wanna talk unless it's all about the scene
We don't wanna hear about your outdated beliefs
Tough for you so now you tryna gatekeep it for me
Slide in through the back you know there's no security

You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it

Threatened by the thought of losing all authority
Standing in the front and preaching your philosophy
Hey, look at this, I'm good at that
Don't hesitate to let me know
We figured it out already
You never had to tell us so

You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it

You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
You can't help it
