

Contemplation

KUČKA

Cleared a space in my mind
Settled with nothing, no sensory
Time to re-focus in, I agree to Leave my future behind
Only anxieties disguised as needs
Doubting me, poisoning everything I try to be, but I'm tending another seed
Watch this, this space
To grow, to grow, better water it
Something to fulfill my needs now
I'm shading beneath the leaves
Watch this, this
Soothing me, heavenly remedy

Build it up, build it up
Stronger than I knew I could be
Higher than I knew I could reach
Build it up, build it up
Stronger than I knew I could be
Higher than I knew I could reach

Build it up, build it up
Build it up, build it up
Build it up, build it up
Build it up, build it up

Holy gazing
That of only you could see
Feel it when you look at me, baby
Now, calmly
See vividly
Live it in your memory
Spirit in your threnody, baby
Go, go now
Down, down
Down, down
Start again, again
It's the only way home now
Down, down
Down, down
Start again, again
It's the only way home now
