

Drowning

KUČKA

Now I need air
Needed to leave there

Now I feel
That I couldn't be anything I wanted to be there
And I wanted to see everything, everything, everything
And I couldn't be everything I needed to be there
And I needed to see everything, everything, everything

And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning

Never say never
Before you let go
Never say never
Before you said no

Now I feel
That I couldn't be anything I wanted to be there
And I wanted to see everything, everything, everything
And I couldn't be everything I needed to be there
And I needed to see everything, everything, everything

And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning

Light was filtering through the surface
Closing on me, closing on me
I was sinking back into darkness
Closing on me, closing on me

And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
And I felt like I was drowning, drowning, drowning
