

Come and ride in my car, my car
And we can play the song you like
We'll drive up to that place to see
The view of our desires
It's raining, heavy now, heavy now
So we just let the engine run
Turn up the heat and watch the world
Slowly lay down

'Cause eternity here with you
Is something I couldn't fear
Untie my hair
Let it out, let it down
Let it down

Yeah, the questions exist and the answers are hard
If it's already fated, was there ever a start?
Yeah, I'm feeling a shift and it's something profound
That's awakening slowly, slowly
Take my arms, don't let me go, let me go
It's too far for me to fall, I need you to know, know this Feels safe so lay with me
It's late now, my eyes heavy, baby

And eternity here with you
Is something I couldn't fear
Untie my hair
Let it out, let it down
Let it down
