

Unconditional

KUČKA

I don't like your style
But you've got your own thing
And I don't even care
'Cause we've got something
And you can make a fool of yourself
And I'll still love you

I used to think that love was just for fools
And I don't wanna say good night too soon
Waitin' for the Sun to rise with you

Baby, just wait
Baby, just wait
Feels like emotion now
Rollin' away

Baby, just wait ('Cause, straight up, my love)
Baby, just wait (Is unconditional)
Feels like emotion now (Just wait, I know we'll)
Rollin' away (We'll feel it again)

'Cause we can play the game
Or we can be true
Yeah, we can stay up late
'Cause that's what lovers do
And we can get lost in our tracks
Of what we were supposed to do

I used to think that love was just for fools
And I don't wanna say good night too soon
Waitin' for the Sun to rise with you

Baby, just wait
Baby, just wait
Feels like emotion now
Rollin' away

Baby, just wait ('Cause, straight up, my love)
Baby, just wait (Is unconditional)
Feels like emotion now (Just wait, I know we'll)
Rollin' away (We'll feel it again)

Baby, just wait ('Cause, straight up, my love)
Baby, just wait (Is unconditional)
Feels like emotion now (Just wait, I know we'll)
(We'll feel it again)
