

108 Ways To Leave Your Narcissist

Kula Shaker

No one else could love me better, that's what I used to say
Baby was a real go-getter till I got in her way

Yeah, I got in her way now she's gone
And I don't know how I'll carry on
If I can't even sing this song without crying

Love is blind, love is blind, love is blind
Love is blind, love is blind, love is blind

My sister told me you'll be sorry, boy, but I did not heed
Everyone's a fortune teller, yeah, everyone but me

Now everything is so messed up
Cause I drank from the poisoned cup
But I ain't quite ready to give up
No, no, no!

Love is blind, love is blind, love is blind
Love is blind, love is blind, love is blind

Still I pray, she'll come back some day - my love
She's such a narcissist but I can't resist her love

You say I'm tragically optimistic
So unbelieving, unrealistic
You say I'm doing it to myself
I only see her eyes and nothing else
I can't see nothing else
Nothing else

Love is blind, love is blind, love is blind
Love is blind, love is blind, love is blind
