Freedom

Kungs

It's been so long since I felt this good
Sweet sensation, the high, makes me move
This vibration, the light, holds the truth
Revelation of my servitude

Looking for my freedom, looking for my way
Looking for my freedom, looking for my way
Looking for my freedom, looking for my way
Looking for my freedom

Constellation that guide my way
I've been patient, half alive, dormant state
Paralyzed, I am no more, now I can breathe
Born to a new life, no longer blind, now I can see

Looking for my freedom, looking for my way
Looking for my freedom, looking for my way
Looking for my freedom, looking for my way
Looking for my freedom
