

Melody

Kungs

Rumors rolling around my brain
I don't know what to believe
But honestly nothing could hold me back
Wanna be part of your scene
You are the best that I ever had
You make me walk in a dream
Silk summer undo your hair
You make me walk in a dream

Your melody, melody, melody sings to me
Your melody, melody dream
A melody, melody, melody sings to me
A melody, melody dream
Melody, melody, melody sings to me
Your melody, melody dream
A melody, melody, melody sings to me
A melody, melody dream

A silk sun, silk sun, silk sun
Melody dream

Rumors walking around my brain
But you make me believe
I see the danger that's in your eyes
You live life to be free
And I don't know how to contain you
You make me walk in a dream
Under the silk of the moon of you
You make me walk in a dream

Your melody, melody, melody sings to me
Your melody, melody dream
A melody, melody, melody sings to me
A melody, melody dream
Melody, melody, melody sings to me
Your melody, melody dream
A melody, melody, melody sings to me
A melody, melody dream

Melody, melody, melody sings to me
Your melody, melody dream
A melody, melody, melody sings to me
A melody, melody dream
