

Substitution

Kungs

Uuhh
Been looking for a substitution
Uuhh
Healing my hearts confusion
Uuhh
Been looking for a substitution
But there ain't no one replacing you

Am I high or low?
Am I bipolar?
Need another you
To shake it, shake it
Ohh I love that face
Perfect stranger
'Cause I could use someone
To shake it, shake it

But I know that I can't get you out of my head
And I know I can't numb you away
Yeah I know when I wake up with her instead
No there ain't no one replacing you
No there ain't no one replacing you

Uuhh
Been looking for a substitution
Uuhh
Healing my hearts confusion
Uuhh
Been looking for a substitution
But there ain't no one replacing you

Uuhh
Been looking for a substitution
Uuhh
Losing all of my illusions
Uuhh
Looking for a substitution
But there ain't no one replacing you

Gotta loosen up
My emotions
Just start it up
To shake it, shake it
When I hear your name
I can't be sober
I could use someone
To shake it, shake it

But I know that I can't get you out of my head
And I know I can't numb you away
Yeah I know when I wake up with her instead

No there ain't no one

Uhhh
Been looking for a substitution
Uhhh
Healing my hearts confusion
Uhhh
Been looking for a substitution
But there ain't no one replacing you

Uhhh
Been looking for a substitution
Uhhh
Losing all of my illusions
Uhhh
Looking for a substitution
But there ain't no one replacing you

Uhhh
Been looking for a substitution
Uhhh
Losing all of my illusions
Uhhh
Looking for a substitution
