

Lauren's Thoughts

Kur

I was a young bul like I wasn't even going at parties yet
We were sitting in the back
She called you Cur
I was like it's not Cur it's Kur
We were arguing about it for like hours
And I was just listening to you
And I would show all my friends your shit
Like all my white girls from the county
I really put all my friends on your shit
Like listen you swear if I facetime my friend
I swear to God you know she cool as shit that's my cousin
My one cousin, can I facetime her?
