

No Grind

Kur

Highs and lows
Feel like I've

Highs and lows
Feel like I've been through these times before
Grind was slow
But that was better than no grind, no grind
Eyes was low
Rolling this wood back to back back to back with my bro
Lies was told
I had to take out the knives before

Find some hope I'm trying to find it
I'm trying to step out my climate
Catch myself digging and looking for something and out that I'll never find it
Caught myself bitchin' and I thought about quitting cause none of this shit felt solid
None of this shit felt right and I know they really not worried about talent
They told me ask for help when I asked for the help. It's like people got quiet.
I had to cry by myself and stress by myself and I did it without them
Shit that I go through loading up pro tools I'm bout to tell you about it
Can I vent for a sec? I spent 60 K just to clear up my debt
Can I vent for a sec? I have bought my bitch Van Cleef. She wanted the set.
Can I vent for a sec after she done with me, she gonna go to the next
Can I vent for a sec all the business and politics had me upset
Can I vote for a second? I never complain when I had to take less

Can I vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a sec?
Vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a
Can I vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a sec?
Can I vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a

I need to vent I need to tell you about how niggas switch
We built this shit. It was brick after brick
I felt like if it ain't broke then don't fix
Skipping the 8 what come after the 6
Lot on my plate, but I still never trip
Carried that weight, it was so much to lift
I gave her space I was feeling the shift
It ain't no question I'm willing to help
It ain't no question I'm willing to give
Already told you how real it can get
Already showed you, I'm built for this shit
This like a sensitive game and most of time niggas be in they feelings and s hit
Biters niggas be stealing your shit, wired, I think I feel it a bit
Thinking that I fell off, but I'm just getting started, my nigga I'm still in this bitch
Come how it come and I deal with the shit, running on E but I still had to spit
This run for E, I got love for you kid, I told my mom she should stop smokin g the cigs
She told me I should stop smoking the backs, it woulda so much that I said in the past
Fucked up shit, I could never take back

Can I vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a sec?
Vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a
Can I vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a sec?
Can I vent for a sec, y'all, can I vent for a
