

Right Now

Kur

Cause if it never went down, it's going down right now
Right now [x5]
Cause if it never went down. it's going down right now
Right now [x5]
Cause if it never went down, it's going down right now

I see ya' stop going down
I let you have last year but shit I got right now
I was busy when she text me, I'm like not right now
I couldn't even tuck that Glock, my pants would drop right down
This bitch heard I'm touching guap, her pants dropped right down
I know them bitches gon' flock cause I'm hot right now
He at every single party so the price went down
Had my eyes on a few houses, bouta' cop them now
Very thankful cause I could've been popped right now
I remember I got fired and I copped that ounce
Mom used to write checks knowing that shit gon' bounce
At least they give you time served, what if that shit didn't count?
How many niggas is genuine? On one hand I can count
I'll never forget a nigga who help when I'm down
Look at all these little rap dudes taking my style
And my cousin just text me like man you making me proud
Plus I seen you on TV
And you gave it all you got although your life wasn't easy
We ain't have no registration in that fish bowl regal
It's every man for his self, cause friends change like seasons
Coop know that I got him, always here if he need me
He was there in the shipment, me him and dot watching TV
We bagging up and I told him, how I'm a' drop my next CD
Now I drop when I want to, now I shop for no reason
Just Givenchy my sneakers, I don't think they can keep up
Man that bitch was the weakest

Cause if it never went down, it's going down right now
Right now [x5]
Cause if it never went down. it's going down right now
Right now [x5]
Cause if it never went down, it's going down right now

I shared crumbs when I only had crumbs
I split a dollar when I only had one
They spun the block hoping that they tagged one
A group of girls I'm guaranteed to bag one, maybe three
Me shining, that's what niggas hate to see, hate on me
Go and get it, wait and see, if you want it ain't free
I was saving up my money for some sneaks instead of beats
I was tryna' keep up with Kese, you know Lil had the Jeep
When you flow stop the heat, we used to talk about our dreams
And Kareem was the fliest, guess he finally got his wings
Hear it in my voice, that's that pain
Roof used to leak when it rained
Uniform shirts had stains
Shit changed now them bitches look strange, when I walk pass
Slick mouth I talk fast
I'm off that

Cause if it never went down, it's going down right now

Right now [x5]

Cause if it never went down. it's going down right now

Right now [x5]

Cause if it never went down, it's going down right now
