Sometimes, Sometimes, Sometimes I still think about you. I still think about you
Sometimes, Sometimes, Sometimes I still think about you. I still think about you
Sometimes, Sometimes, Sometimes I still think about you. I still think about you

I wonder who you been fuckin' and spending time with. I wonder if you'll forgive me for all the foul shit
Side chicks with they loud shit. Callin' you with they nonsense. Causing us all these problems, it's my fault I allowed it
I heard that you got pregnant from some nigga that you mess with. I was shocked, I ain't expect it, I was mad sent you a message
How we fuck up something special? Thought this shit would last forever. Learned a lot of shit from it made me stronger, made me better
But I still wish you the best, hope you happy nothing less. Know I had you under stress, I know that shit wasn't the best. Could've talked and you just left
Never came I needed help. You moved on with someone else. You don't feel the way you felt

Sometimes, Sometimes, Sometimes I still think about you. I still think about you
Sometimes, Sometimes, Sometimes I still think about you. I still think about you
Sometimes, Sometimes, Sometimes I still think about you. I still think about you

I might miss you but I'll never let you know it. Told you I loved you but I never really showed it. Had your heart said "I won't break it." But I broke it
But I'm hoping you forgive me, I matured man I got older. Said you loved me, thought you meant it. Why you leave, why you just end it?
Is it real or you pretended? Let's get back it's gone be different. Wish you hear me out and listen. Instead of spazzin' out and trippin'
Getting mad about some bitches, fuck the bitches let's move forward. I'll ignore em' I'll adore you. Yeah, I'll spoil you just stay loyal, If you for me then I'm for you. I'm ya nigga you my shawty
Stay the night, leave in the morning. Let's make up, I'll put it on you. I'm just asking for a moment to remind you that I own it. Foreal
