

Can I Call

Kurt Nilsen

I got a vision, a [?]
An intuition, a sign
I got a life to live
Well, am I living it now?
I got you to make sure
That everything is in place
I got you to hold me tight
When I get that look on my face

Can I call it fate?
Can I call it meant to be?
Can I say that it's forever?
Can I call you a constant need?
Will you guard my back?
Will you give like you get?
Will you cherish your love?
Will you give it all up for me?

It's my position, decision
Your life is opposite mine
It takes my ego to a level baby
That just ain't right
I got flaws you won't believe
Sometimes I'm foolish as hell
I got the traveling, flying, staying
At a shitty motel

Can I call it fate?
Can I call it meant to be?
Can I say that it's forever?
Can I call you a constant need?
Will you guard my back?
Will you give like you get?
Will you cherish your love?
Will you give it all up for me?

So lift me higher
You're my desire
Like an amplifier
That keeps cranking up
You take me higher
If I'm uninspired
Sing to the choir
And show me how it's done

You lift me higher
You're my desire
Like an amplifier
That keeps cranking up
So take me higher
If I'm uninspired
Sing to the choir
And show me how it's done, yeah

Can I call it fate?
Can I call it meant to be?
Can I say that it's forever?

Can I call you a constant need?
Will you guard my back?
Will you give like you get?
Will you cherish your love?
Will you give it all up for me?
