KUURO

Breaking up, all this static running through my blood
Again, why do you waste your light on me?
Out of luck, can I keep my head above this time?
Again, feeling the ground collapse on me

Collapse
On me
Collapse

Blown around, in a storm that only brings me down
Again, why does it feel so hard to breathe?
Why does it feel so hard to breathe? (So hard to breathe)
Never found, but these voices bring me to my knees
Again, why do you waste your light on me?
Again, feeling the ground collapse on me

Collapse
On me
I'm feeling it all collapse
I'm feeling the ground collapse on me
