

We fell down in a ditch
Picked up a BC Rich
To cure our aching itch

Didn't make it to court
Got a red pearl export
From the gods of the north

Running away from the herd
But the promises made
Were all destined to fail from the start

Cause now we're stuck in the wave, turning into our graves, caught inside
There will be no one to save us, we're axed and it's too late to bail out
Now it's crushing our spine, it's a sign of what's to come down the line
All our dreams are forsaken, our hope washed away by the tide

You got American wife
But then you ruined your life
Satan's in disguise

Paved our way through dark times and decay
But the cards we've been dealt tied our hands, there's no way to escape

And now we're stuck in the wave, turning into our graves, caught inside
There will be no one to save us, we're axed and it's too late to bail out
Now it's crushing our spine, it's a sign what's to come down the line
All our dreams are forsaken, our hope washed away by the tide

Walking the blood drenched roads
A world in discord
Now it's all against all

Look! See all the dark clouds gather
The four winds are loose and the cities we built will dissolve!

And we're still stuck in the wave, turning into our graves, caught inside
There will be no one to save us, we're axed and it's too late to bail out
Now it's crushing our spine, it's a sign what's to come down the e line

All our dreams are forsaken, our hope washed away by the tide