

Toxic

Kwesi Arthur

Don't get too excited, but tonight I will be honest
My heart is still divided
The love you feel is misguided, oh
No lies, loving you is not the motive
I don't got no emotion, if you look inside you know

I'm toxic, poison
You don't need my loving, darling
You don't need me

I'm toxic, poison
You don't need my loving, darling

Baby now you know
You don't know then baby now you know
Baby now you know oh, oh

Baby now you know
You don't know then, baby now you know
Baby now you know oh, oh
Baby now you know

She say wait
I don't tire
I can't do this
Me I retire
Me I can't take it
Fucking liar
And my sacrifice you require

Oh you so basic
You know why
You no be type wey me I desire
Me I want Jay-Z
I admire
Cannot believe I fell for you

She say curse the day when you and I I I
On the day you came my way
Me I love you truly until you play I
Me I never go forgive, you baby
I tell her baby you know I'm crazy
I thought I told you me I'm done dating
I don't know if it's me or Satan
But me I know

I'm toxic, poison
You don't need my loving, darling
You don't need me

I'm toxic, poison
You don't need my loving, darling

Baby now you know
You don't know then, baby now you know
Baby now you know oh, oh

Baby now you know
You don't know then, baby now you know
Baby now you know oh, oh
Baby now you know

Baby now you know
Baby now you know
Baby now you know
Baby now you know
