See all the folks who was smart back in school
Didn't know that I was dumb enough to do this shit
Them old folks with their bias advice
Didn't know that I was young enough to do this shit

All the gents I drank with in taverns
Didn't know that I was drunk enough to do this shit
And all the girls that said no when I hollered
Didn't know that I loved enough to do this shit
And now they watch me do this shit
(Yeah, now they watch me do this shit)

Yeah, but look
Them niggas ain't doing shit
Oh yeah

So they gotta watch me do this shit
(They gotta watch me do this shit, now they watch me do the shit)
I'll show you how to do this shit
Right, right

Aye, beautiful days, better nights
Scoot off the crate, to work to get the cheddar right
They said I shouldn't try it, bitch, it not for me
And now I watch them dying every time I breathe

See, I ain't really one to hold a grudge and shit
But I remember you well from when I wasn't shit
And you was loving it, balling while we was budgeting
Now karma is a bitch, she's here looking for nuts and shit

Now she in love with me, I'm fucking her in public
Say something, think I forgot what a stutter is
See, I'm in another world, a boy gotta live
And I just hung up on a girl on your bucket list

See all the folks who was smart back in school
Didn't know that I was dumb enough to do this shit
Them old folks with their bias advice
Didn't know that I was young enough to do this shit

All the gents I drank with in taverns
Didn't know that I was drunk enough to do this shit
And all the girls that said no when I hollered
Didn't know that I loved enough to do this shit
And now they watch me do this shit

Yeah, but look
Them niggas ain't doing shit
Oh yeah

So they gotta watch me do this shit
(They gotta watch me do this shit, now they watch me do the shit)
Let me show you how to do this shit
Right

Aye man, I hope you holding up down there, boy

Hope you still getting drunk down there, boy
Don't forget that it was us down there, boy
Now the whole world on my nuts, down there, boy

Look alive though, I got dreams for you
That's my life, bro, a dream for you
It's a movie, how I wish I had a scene for you
It's no act, I ain't even got a seat for you

I'm not stunting, I'm leaving you to peep through the curtain
A little too busy to let you meet me in person
Don't miss a thing though, sleep aint a means to escape
That's why I'm living both, I choose to keep you awake

See all the folks who was smart back in school
Didn't know that I was dumb enough to do this shit
Them old folks with their bias advice
Didn't know that I was young enough to do this shit

All the gents I drank with in taverns
Didn't know that I was drunk enough to do this shit
And all the girls that said no when I hollered
Didn't know that I loved enough to do this shit
And now they watch me do this shit

Yeah, but look
Them niggas ain't doing shit
Oh yeah

So they gotta watch me do this shit
(They gotta watch me do this shit, now they watch me do the shit)
Show you how to do this shit
Right
