

Shooting Star

Kwesta

See, I dedicate this one to, you, and you and you
Ahhh, I dedicate this one to her
Ameen...

Catch me in the skies
I will be waiting for you
I will take you to cloud nine
You will never...
I can be you shooting star girl
Shooting star girl
I will make all your dreams come true

Eyyy, Bheka
Babe you are the only reason for my joy 'coz
My day is only great if yours was No lying, I ain't playing I mean that
And you blind, I just pray that you can see that Tell me you strong, tell me you weak
I need you to be woman enough to tell me your dreams
Tell me you scared but don't tear us apart
'Coz I will be right behind you when I follow my heart
Yesterday was great and today is better
I can't promise tomorrow, let's try again forever
Let's ride out together, fly out together
Turn normal days into wildest endervours
When the pain comes and rain falls, we gonna stay calm
Find the rainbow
Look, I might fear commit...
But am right hear
Just tell me you calm

Catch me in the skies
I will be waiting for you
I will take you to cloud nine
You will never...
I can be you shooting star girl
Shooting star girl
I will make all your dreams come true

Babe you are the reason I came so far
My dreams are only real, if yours are
Dream of success or dream of me, I will have you follow your dr
