

BULLETPROOF

KxllSwxtch

It's been a hell of a ride
Your true colors crystallized
I know it hurts but I can't look back now
No true lies, hard to find
I know you're flawed by design
It wasn't your suicide
But I still care about my head [?]
Of somebody here standing by your side

I can't forgive suffocating
I'm just a man of revenge
Ain't no chance we can make it
To tell the truth
I'm bulletproof
Wish I could put this to rest
But ain't no asking this back
'Cause lately I've been a mess
To tell the truth
I'm bulletproof

Truth hurts
I'm afraid this pain made you sick
I know it's easier to pretend
Someone finds love in other regrets
No way we're both unscathed in the end
In the end
On and on it's always nonsense
I have vows but my empty promise
I can't stay for a while
Without worry

I can't forgive suffocating
I'm just a man of revenge
Ain't no chance we can make it
To tell the truth
I'm bulletproof
Wish I could put this to rest
But ain't no asking this back
'Cause lately I've been a mess
To tell the truth
I'm bulletproof

I can't stay for a while
Without worry
