

Burn

KxllSwxtch

Think twice don't you Debby to see
When things could seem right
There's a wolf in the streets
Leaving the sheep's hide
Dollar signs in your head
Your life is a cheap price

Ok, ok I got a couple loose screws up inside my head
Go tell a friend I think I'm nuts just a little bit
Alright, alright
Just say it once for the thrill of it
I think of the moon in the sky
Dark like a silhouette
Alright, alright
Just wanna lie down
Just the world is burning right now
No where to run, no where to hide out
I'm sick and tired I need a time out
Just wanna lie down
Just the world is burning right now
No where to run, no where to hide out
I'm sick and tired I need a time out

She got a Glock mane
To the side of my neck
Baby you're too kind
Pull the trigger instead
I got a short fuse, hot head don't make a mistake
Just one shot, drop dead
Get your brain misplaced like

Do you really want to meet your end
If you can then you can be my guest
I don't really wanna be your fun
But they say its just a game
Everybody in the small so fun
Nobody ever listen to a thing I say
To everybody in my way
Wanna kill everybody

Just wanna lie down
Just the world is burning right now
No where to run, no where to hide out
I'm sick and tired I need a time out
Just wanna lie down
Just the world is burning right now
No where to run, no where to hide out
I'm sick and tired I need a time out

Let me sit back
Jump, no chit-chat
Baby don't bite that
Be close, don't stop until I explode
Expose these fuck boys
This world is so cut throat
This fofo make them duck low
Rich man look like a hobo

Their boys be taking my photo
Hey Cassey yeah bitch I'm loco
Two hoe's who are from so care
I slow down, no bitch I don't go there
And I'm know there
Across the ocean
But they rebels
From ripping their hair, but yeah there California
To the moon and back
Still posted up on that cul-de-sac

Just wanna lie down
Just the world is burning right now
No where to run, no where to hide out
I'm sick and tired I need a time out
Just wanna lie down
Just the world is burning right now
No where to run, no where to hide out
I'm sick and tired I need a time out
