

HAVE YOU SEEN MY MIND?

KxllSwxtch

Walk down the street seen
Too many faces
Stop tryna fit in
You'll only fake it
Don't over think you're
Too complicated
Don't wait for me girl
You'll lose your patience

I be staring at the sky sometimes when I close my eyes money cross my mind n ot you
Hope it kills your vibe just to think bout I When your lying confined Inside your room
Conversations flame when you say my name I be stained on your brain just lik e tattoos
Baby I'm ok stuck inside this space where the tears don't rain cause the pai n taboo

Gettin high where the sun don't shine at all
Seen the future in your eyes no crystal ball
Heard the rumors in your lies each time you talked Shoulda listened But it be like that
And Girl you came into my life n put a gun to my heart
You got me thinking to myself when I'm alone in the park
All through the night where you ain't nothing but a thought in the dark
And girl you nothing like a saint but you can sure play the part
And when it's dark skies in the window pane
Baby you the only one I blame
Take your time girl don't be afraid
Pull the trigger make this gun go bang
Take me to a place far a-way
Think I lost my mind here
We could make this work No way
Think you lost your mind dear

Walk down the street seen
Too many faces
Stop tryna fit in
You'll only fake it
Don't over think you're
Too complicated
Don't wait for me girl
You'll lose your patience

I be staring at the sky sometimes when I close my eyes money cross my mind n ot you
Hope it kills your vibe just to think bout I When your lying confined Inside

Walk down the streets
Too many faces
You're too complicated

Ok ok

Walk down the street seen
Too complicated
