

TAKE A GOOD LOOK

KxllSwxtch

So take a good look before I leave
Before the hills is where I'll be Another heart left out to bleed
Now all that's left is memories (Memories)

Made a bad decision letting you get this close Cut me with precision, this incision won't close Burnin' out like cigarettes, our love's up in smoke

Took a minute just for me to finally let go
I should've seen the bullet, could've dodged from the get-go
Now you're lingering inside my head like an echo
I gotta put this shit down or else—

So take a good look before I leave
Before the hills is where I'll be
Another heart left out to bleed
Now all that's left is memories (Memories)
(Ooh)

I hate when words pierce the skin and I start to fray and every thing gets to quaking
Time tells and nobody to see so why don't we let be, go wipe th e tears that you make up Time [?], give me a second to breathe, the feeling's starting t o flee, it wasn't us meant to be Now I'm here, stuck picking up pieces, why can't I find someone to lean on?

I be steadily saying the wrong things, drive me crazy like I'm insane when your mood swing, uh
You remember when we was [?] in the backseat when everything wa sn't so bleak? Uh Baby take me high like angel dust, why the hell is your love so dangerous?
Now I see the horns under your halo, I don't think we'll ever f ind a way home

So take a good look before I leave
Before the hills is where I'll be
Another heart left out to bleed
Now all that's left is memories (Memories)
