

The Feeling

Kygo

I see the waves, I see an ocean there beneath your eyes
And I wanna dive into the deep end
I see the sun on the horizon of your orange sky
And I'm getting warmer when you lean in

It's like I'm walking on air tonight, you got me off the ground
Now that I've been up this high, I ain't ever coming down
Like I'm walking on air tonight, oh, above the clouds
There's no words I can use to say it right

Tell me can you feel it, the feeling, the way I do
You hold me in your palms like I was made for you
So tell me can you feel it, the feeling, the way I do
I'll always remember when I fell into
The feeling

The feeling
Oh, the feeling
The feeling
Of, of you

How can a heart be beating so hard for someone you don't know?
But it feels like I've known you for a lifetime
How can a touch say so much and cut right through my soul?
You've got me spinning and I don't mind

It's like I'm walking on air tonight, you got me off the ground
Now that I've been up this high, I ain't ever coming down
Like I'm walking on air tonight, oh, above the clouds
There's no words I can use to say it right

Tell me can you feel it, the feeling, the way I do
You hold me in your palms like I was made for you
So tell me can you feel it, the feeling, the way I do
I'll always remember when I fell into
The feeling

The feeling, oh, oh, feeling
The feeling for, for you
The feeling, oh, oh, feeling
You hold me in your palms like I was made for you

So tell me can you feel it, the feeling, oh, oh, feeling
The feeling, oh, oh, you
So tell me can you feel it, the feeling, oh, oh, feeling
You hold me in your palms like I was made for you
So tell me can you feel it
